1. Ownership statement

Unless a separate credit states otherwise, KEINN owns or controls the rights in the original website design, written copy, visual identity, graphics, animations, original source code and digital presentation published on its official domains.

2. Permitted use

- Visitors may view and use the official website for lawful personal use, business evaluation and communication with KEINN.
- Links to official public pages may be shared when the link is accurate and does not imply an endorsement, partnership or affiliation that does not exist.

3. Permission required

- Written permission from KEINN is required before copying, republishing, redistributing, selling or commercially reusing a substantial part of the site.
- Permission is also required before reproducing or closely imitating the distinctive visual design, layout and animations, or removing ownership notices from copied material.

4. Third-party rights

Third-party names, trademarks, software libraries and credited materials remain the property of their respective owners and are governed by their own licences.

5. No transfer of rights

- Access to the website does not transfer ownership or grant an implied licence beyond the limited permitted use described in this notice.
- All rights not expressly granted in this notice are reserved by KEINN.

6. Requests and reporting

For reuse permission, attribution questions or to report suspected infringement, contact e@keinn.eu and include the relevant page, material and intended use.

This notice is provided for ownership clarity. It is not a copyright registration, a transfer agreement or a substitute for advice from a qualified legal professional.
